Importance of 4 Laning Highway Revealed In Test

Evacuation Tests Point To Bottleneck On U. S. Highway 40

The June 16 nation-wide Command Post Exercise has revealed a most important fact regarding Highway 40, according to a report in the San Francisco Examiner this week.

"Four-laning of California's stragetic U. S. Highway 40 over the Sierra—or chaos along the 'lifeline' in the wake of an enemy attack against major targets in northern California."

That is the picture drawn following the exercise and these two alternatives have highlighted virtually every critique prepared from city through county to state levels.

Results of the breakdown on the critiques, assembled unofficially by the Trans-Sierra Highway Committee at Auburn, showed traffic over the four-lane portion of the highway during "operations alert" was controlled without difficulty. Along the two-lane bottlenecks of the highway, the critiques revealed, civilian traffic blocked military traffic with a resultant four-hour delay.

George Brandlien, coordinator of the Placer County Disaster Council, who would have a major role in the mass evacuation over Highway 40, wrote in his report:

"The four-laneing of Highway 40 is recommended as being of utmost importance, inasmuch as military traffic was unable to move, resulting from civilian traffic having blocked the road.

"The result was a four-hour delay before the road could be opened. This would be very costly as minutes might be the difference between the recovery of this Nation and defeat.

"As the flow of traffic over the four-laned portions was controlled without difficulty, it is recommended that Highway 40 be completely four-laned through the Sierra Nevada Range in order to expedite troop and supply movement in case of a national disaster."

Maj. General Walter M. Robertson, state director of Civilian Defense, on the basis of official reports reaching his office, declared:

"We need a four-lane transcontinental highway—it has become a virtual necessity.

"A four-lane transcontinental route is required both for the dispersal of populated areas, in case of a major disaster, and for bringing in supplies and equipment."

Other officials were equally emphatic in their reports.

STATE WILL DELAY HOBART ROAD WORK

Until a definite decision on the proposed gigantic Washoe Project has been reached by the federal government no permanent work will be done on State Route 89 from Truckee north through Hobart Mills, but maintenance work will be continued.

This report was made to the Nevada County Board of Supervisors by P. Nash of the State Division of Highways at the board's meeting last Friday.

The Washoe Project contemplates a huge dam in Stampede Valley to store the water of the Little Truckee River. The project is being opposed by many local interests, including the board of supervisors, the Truckee Public Utility District, chamber of commerce and others.

Fisher, left here three years ago as a partner of the Cooks in a Chinchilla farm located near the Donner Monument. The friends plan to re-unite in the business in their former location.

Three Auto Mishaps Reported In Area During Past Week

Tommy Gentry, 42, well known Reno resident suffered back injuries Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when the jeep he was driving left the highway just south of Big Chief and plunged into the Truckee River.

Gentry told Patrolman T. F. Sheehan that a car immediately in front of him stopped without warning and he was forced to swerve to avoid a collision. As he did the vehicle went out of control and down the bank. The injured man was taken to the hospital by Truckee ambulance. A dog in the jeep was not injured.

No one was hurt in a strange accident two miles east of Rainbow Tavern on Highway 40 Sunday at 3 a.m. A pickup truck, believed to have been driven by Jolle Stark, 21, Nebraska, overturned on the highway. Stark climbed out saying he was going for a tow car, but failed to return.

His companion, Severin Whitney of Rio Vista, told Patrolman Martin Sturcke that Stark may have continued on to Nebraska, although he had intended to return to Rio Vista following a visit with Whitney's parents who were camped on the Truckee River. Neither man was hurt.

Charles Alberti, a cook at Lake Tahoe, was cited for misdemeanor hit and run after a car he was driving sideswiped another near Carnelian Bay Thursday night. No one was hurt. Patrolman Sheehan made the investigation and cited Alberti to appear before Judge Harry Charrison.

Little said the acquisition of the Carnelian Bay business will not make any difference in the operation of the Truckee office.

Strike At Local Mill Continues As Many Are Idle

No Settlement In Sight As Effects of Strike In West are Felt

The strike at the Truckee mill of the Stockton Box Company was nearing its second week today and no sign of a settlement was in sight.

The strike here, which idled some 100 men engaged at the mill and in the logging industry, apparently hinges upon settlement to be made between the mill owners and the AFL Lumber and Sawmill Workers which is affecting the entire west coast.

One result of the strike which has affected approximately 130,000 workers, is the increase in the cost of lumber. Sharp raises have been noted in both San Francisco and Los Angeles as the hope for an early settlement dims.

The workers are seeking an increase of 12¼ cents an hour over the former scale. The mills, who had threatened a cutback from the previous contracts, are offering to continue at the old rate.

The most recent optimistic note in the dispute came from Eureka wher eight mills were represented in new labor-management discussions, with early settlement seen. Fifteen mills in that area have reached an agreement.

SUNBEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

The forthcoming holiday weekend promises to see more vehicles on the highways that during any weekend in history, so the various safety councils and sound thinking people everywhere are giving serious thought to what they can do to curb the slaughter. We believe it is high time that more drastic action is taken by enforcement officers and courts. It becomes apparent that daily examples of the useless killing and terrific property loss through car crashes, is not enough to curb the growing menace. If a maniac were loose in the community, slaughtering children and destroying property, everyone would rise up in arms to apprehend the criminal. Yet every year, just such a criminal exacts a greater toll throughout the state of California. This criminal called "accident" can be stopped.

We still hear people boast of buying out of town and for the life of us we can't see what personal satisfaction they gain from that attitude. They are not only causing a loss to local business firms which makes Truckee as a community possible, but are certainly ont affecting any saving. We know large centers attract people and that well displayed merchandise is luring, but we might suggest that you scan the shelves and counters of your local merchants and you will find equally attractive merchandise and more often than not—as a matter of fact—at prices below those you might pay in larger stores where overhead is greater.

NO CHANGES WITH ABSENTEE VOTES; HOOPER GAINS

In the contest for coroner, Incumbent Alvah Hooper of Truckee gaind 47 votes more over his opponent, Laurence Myers, and the final count stood 3733 to 3572, a tally of the absentee ballots in the June 8th primary election revealed Friday.

No changes in the outcome of the election were made by the tally. Sheriff Wayne Brown gained 285 votes to Richard Hoskins' 90 while District Attorney Vernon Stoll gained 236 to Harold Berliner's 139.

Joseph O'Connor received 167 absentee votes and his successful opponent, William Carey gained 192.

County Treasurer and Tax Collector Elma Hecker received the largest complimentary vote, 6341, including 346 absentees. County Clerk R. E. Deeble was second with a total of 6232, including 351 absentee ballots.

TRUCKEE RIVER IS CLASSIFIED WITH BEST FISH WATERS

The Truckee River came in for a big national boost recently when Newsweek magazine, in a big spread on fly-fishing in the United States, listed the Truckee as one of the top 12 fly-fishing spots in the nation.

The Truckee was named as a fine place to flycast for rainbow and brown trout, along with such other angler paradises as Necklace Valley, Wash. (for rainbow); Rogue River, Ore. (rainbow); Kern River, Calif. (rainbow, golden); Snake River, Idaho (rainbow); Encampment River, Wyo. (rainbow); Madison River, Mont. (rainbow); Gunnison River, Colo. (rainbow, brown); Brodhead Creek, Pa. (brown, rainbow); Beaver Kill River, N. Y. (brown, rainbow); Batten Kill River, Vt. (brown), and Salmon Falls River, Me. (brook).

Newsweek story dealt with the intricacies of fly-fishing and its increasing popularity with the true sportsmen among the angling clan. The story was accompanied by the front cover illustration (in color) in the June 14 issue of the magazine.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hocker of Oroville were here last weekend.

Solons Studying Use of Tideland Funds for Parks

Emerald Bay Cited In State Division's Handling Of Funds

By Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Added strength to the contention of some legislators that California's tideland oil royalty revenue, which includes $70 million dollars to be returned by the federal government, should be deposited in the state's general fund instead of 70 per cent going to the state division of beaches and parks, was seen here today as solons mulled over one of the latest disclosures of the operations of that division.

The division, engrossed in acquiring all of the area surrounding Emerald Bay, Lake Tahoe, so far has spent nearly a half a million dollars for property in that area.

One of the pieces acquired was a holding of 31.33 acres owned by J. W. Watson, who operates the Emerald Bay Resort. Watson was paid $125,000 for the 31.33 acres of land.

Immediately subsequent to buying the land, the state division of beaches and parks, which is headed by Newton B. Drury, leased the property back to Watson, for $3000 per year, or 6 per cent of his gross, which ever is larger.

The state, however, is responsible fo rthe maintenance of the exterior of the buildings on the property. Watson is permitted to operate an office, restaurant, grocery store, dining room, kitchen, boathouse, piers, cottages, cabins, tent frames and a gas station.

A smaller deal involved 2.3 acres for which the state paid Moisey Matuchansky $46,000. For a flat sum of $200 annually, Matuchansky can operate a boathouse, pier, three cabins and a lodge. Only requirement of the state is that he be in business from May 29 to September 30.

The property acquired by the state division of beaches and parks is of, course, taken off the tax rolls of El Dorado County, in which it is situated, as one government entity does not tax another entity's land. Thus, the proprietors of the two establishments not only get the price of their property, but escape the payment of property taxes for the time they operate the state-owned property.

On the Watson property, the state also agrees to maintain the water and sewage system.

Included in other property the state has acquired around Emerald Bay is the Vikingsholm castle. So far, the division of beaches and parks has developed none of the property it has acquired around Emerald Bay, most of which is steep and precipitous and not susceptible to extensive development as a recreation area. Suggestions have been made to Gov. Goodwin J. Knight that Vikingsholm could be used for a "summer capitol," but so far, the governor hasn't taken them seriously.

Most of Emerald Bay, which was acquired primarily, park officials state, "to preserve the esthetic beauty of the landscape," will be available to the public, if it ever is available, only by foot. Admittedly, the bay is a beautiful scenic spot, but never will be much in the way of a recreational area for picnickers and campers, in view of the steep areas involved.

However, some camping and picnic areas are to be developed on the south shore of the bay. The Emerald Bay resort is on the north shore.

The eventual plan of the division of beaches and parks is to acquire al lthe intervening property between the bay and D. L. Bliss estate park, which is composed of some 900 acres, most of which is "being preserved in its natural state."

Junk Dealer Again Is Cited For Starting Fire In This District

E. W. Hamman, Brownsville junk dealer, is apparently not one to learn easily.

Assistant U. S. Forest Service Ranger Nelson Stone said Hamman, for the second time in two years Tuesday was responsible for starting a potentially dangerous fire by indiscriminate use of a cutting torch.

Hamman has been charged with burning without a permit and leaving a fire unattended.

Stone said the Brownsville junk dealer set fire to a wooded area one and a half miles northeast of Truckee while cutting old auto bodies with an acetylene torch.

Although road blocks were thrown out to stop Hamman, their use proved unnecessary when the junk dealer's truck was found parked on a Truckee side street.

The maximum sentence Hamman could receive would be a $500 fine, six months in jail, or both. Stone said Hamman was found guilty of starting a fire under almost identical circumstances on the outskirts of Truckee last year and was fined $50 by Judge Wilson.

Raps Carnivals

Constable N. F. Dolley said he would recommend that legal steps be taken to eliminate future carnival "rackets" in this district. The officer said he was flooded with complaints by disgruntled patrons of the show, who charged they had been cheated in various games conducted by the concern.

Serious Forest Fire Strikes In Tahoe City Area

Other Fires In District As Officials Warn Of Dangers

Two-hundred men with equipment fought the district's most damaging forest fire in the vicinity of Tahoe City yesterday afternoon for five hours before bringing it under control but not before 60 acres of heavy timber and brush had been destroyed.

The fire, believed to have been started by a careless smoker, was noticed at 12:15 p.m. near the Tahoe Campground on the west side of the highway.

It was fanned by a strong wind and within minutes was completely out of control and sweeping in the general direction of Anton Meadow, but jumping the highway to stop traffic for several hours.

Last night patrols and mopping up crews were still busy to prevent the fire from starting afresh. District Ranger Max Williamson and Assistant Nelson Stone were in charge of the fighting, aided by all available volunteers and hastily recruited crews from nearby communities.

Two men suffered minor burns and one man, John Marciavicus of Truckee was cited by Deputy Sheriff Roy Waters for refusing to fight the fire and was placed under $50 bail by Judge F. W. Wilson.

No homes or businesses were in the path of the fire, but a shift in the wind might easily have resulted in heavy loss as the area is heavily populated.

Seventh Fire

The district during the past week with the fire season hardly started, has experienced its third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh fires.

Fire No. 4, a quarter of a mile southwest of the J. E. Joerger ranch in Martis Valley Saturday shortly after noon swept over six acres of brush and timber and was well on its way to becoming a major conflagration when stopped by the suppression crews and approximately 50 volunteers hastily recruited by Deputy Sheriff Roy Waters and Constable N. F. Dolley.

It took the combined efforts of all these men plus crews from Crandall's sawmill and Lew Baysinger and the Stockton Box Company's cat to bring the fire under control as it was fanned by a strong wind and headed for thick timber.

Fire No. 3 at 1 p.m. Friday burned over an area 50 by 25 feet a mile and a half east of Tahoe City. It was successfully extinguished by the Tahoe City Fire Department under the direction of Al Henry.

No. 5 occurred on the outskirts of Kings Beach on Sunday at 4 p.m. and approximately 150 square feet was burned over. No damage was caused.

All five fires were man caused, the U. S. Forest Service reported.

Osburn Gains After Operation On Leg

Clarence E. Osburn, Truckee Buick Garage owner, was reported recovering nicely at the Tahoe Forest Hospital today following an operation on his upper left leg last Friday to set a broken bone.

Osburn was seriously injured June 20 when he fell from a rock while fishing with a group of Boy Scouts in an isolated area in the White Rock district. Dr. Sidney Kase is attending the victim and reports he will be incapacitated for some time.

Daughter Born

Sheri Fern are the names of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Bowman, born at Tahoe Forest Hospital on June 20. The little girl weighed 7 pounds, 6 ounces on arrival. Dr. Allan Sklar was the attending physician.

Harris was taken to the Roseville District Hospital. The accident occurred Sunday.

TAHOE FOREST ACTIVITIES

Fire Presuppression

The second step in the overall fire control job—prevention being the first step—is being fully prepared to put the one out that prevention failed to prevent. This getting prepared, trained and equipped is known as "Presuppression."

In the broad picture, presuppression consists of recruiting and training seasonal employees; overhauling and bringing up to good operating standards all automotive equipment, which includes pickup trucks, large fire trucks, jeeps, and power wagons; testing and overhauling a large number of radios, which include handie-talkies, mobile units, back-pack radios and regular stationary sets; sharpening of tools and overhauling of portable pumps; opening of lookout buildings and isolated guard stations; getting into operation all telephone lines and overhauling telephone instruments; procuring of camp equipment, groceries, hay, grain, etc., distributing horses and mules from winter pasture to various work units; and a myriad of other jobs.

It is the putting into effect of the Boy Scout motto—"Be Prepared." And we must be fully prepared in every respect for in the putting out of a fire, any failure whatever can easily mean the loss of additional valuable resources and, in some cases, the loss of life.

Fire Training School

Of great importance to suppression, of course, is the ability of people to use the tools and equipment and to know just what to do to get the most effective results.

First off, the Forest Service requires a thorough physical examination to assure employees are physically equipped to do this strenuous job.

Second, they are given training in the driving of all types of vehicles, tested as to sight, reaction time, depth perception, light recovery and then given a written test on traffic laws and safety rules. A driving test is also given which is quite detail in scope and takes up to three hours to do.

In June, all employees of the Tahoe are brought together at a "school," located in the woods, and each are given detail instructions in the particular assignments. These instructions consist of lectures, conference discussions, demonstrations, and actual work. The proper use of the shovel, axe, Mcleod and Pulaski are taught. How to fall a snag by use of both hand tools and power saws; how to read a map; problems confronting foremen and how to put out all size fires small spot fires to larger ones are covered in detail. Also, lookouts are given detail training in the use of firefinders, radio and telephone communication, housekeeping and other duties.

Besides the regular staff, the Tahoe Forest has 12 yearling fire specialists and approximately 80 seasonal employees whose primary job is fire control. It is a big job to get ready for the season, but it is a job that pays off well when the emergency arises.

Buick's Bid For the Body Beautiful

Every lithe line of the 1954 fashion figure has its counterpart in the body lines of the beautiful, new Buick. Its neckline plunges to a new low—accentuating a gracefully curved silhouette—for a slim-waisted look; the beltline is lowered, calling attention to fluid beauty-in-motion. Like Dame Fashion, Buick designers decree a slightly raised hem-line to show more of the lovely means of locomotion. Every fashion point of the body beautiful highlights the Buick today.

ANNUAL LUNCHEON MEET OF CHAMBER HELD AT BROCKWAY

TAHOE CITY—The annual luncheon-meeting of members of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce was attended by approximately 60 persons on Friday last at Brockway Hotel dining room. Fred Main, president of the Tahoe chamber and also Norman Celio, vice president, could not attend, so the meeting was conducted by Pete Bennett, son-in-law of the late Harry Comstock, who was honorary president of the group at the time of his death. A moment of silent prayer was observed by the assembled members in respect to his memory.

George Canon of South Tahoe, who is an active member of the Western State Highway 50 Association, requested those present to watch for the movie "Famous 50," a travelogue depicting the beauties of the South Tahoe region.

Frank Chase of South Tahoe displayed a proposed drawing for the cover of the annual Mile High Gold Cup Regatta to be held this year at Pope's Beach, near Camp Richardson, on September 11 and 12. This year's booklet would run from 30 to 48 pages in four colors and it is expected that advertising would pay for the cost of the printing, with an additional 15,000 copies to be given free to the chamber for sale here at $1 each.

George Kehlet gave a report on the highway commissioners' meeting at Tahoe Inn the night previously and declared that the Emerald Bay road in its present condition not only creates a very bad impression on tourists, but actually divides the lake area, and he believed that following their visit here they realized the grave condition of this stretch of highway and the urgent need for improvement. Kehlet then displayed a number of Tahoe ads running in papers and magazines and announced that 25,000 folders have arrived for distribution.

George Canon, member from South Tahoe, announced plans for the membership caravan which this year will be held on July 25-26 and asked members to give of their time to make it a success.

Present also was Bill Long, who swam Lake Tahoe in 12 hours last summer. He is sponsoring swimming contests for this summer to run between July 10 and September 15.

The swims will start at Meek's Bay and land in the vicinity of Cave Rock on the Nevada side, with contests to be staged for both the width and length of the lake. So far as is known no one has ever swam the lake lengthwise.

Date of the next chamber meeting will be announced later.

THREE FIRES ARE REPORTED AT LAKE

TAHOE CITY—Three small fires were extinguished in short order on Friday by the Tahoe City Volunteer Fire Department. Only absence of wind kept them from becoming serious. Fire Chief Al Henry Jr. was assisted in manning the pumper by Basil Kehoe, Jim Stewart, Verne Bartel and Jay Shontz. At about 9:45 a.m. a brush fire was put out on the Tahoe Commons; at 11 a.m. a second brush fire was brought under control quickly, after being started by a youngster playing with matches; the third was at 12:50 p.m. about one quarter mile past the Tahoe City Fish Hatchery. A spot about 50x25 was burned over. Origin of the fire was not disclosed.

MANY RESIDENTS OF TAHOE ARRIVE AT SUMMER HOMES

TAHOE CITY—With the continued good weather now being enjoyed throughout the Lake Tahoe region, dozens of families are arriving daily to open summer homes for the season.

Among late-comers are Mr. and Mrs. Charles de Bretteville and family from Woodside, vacationing at the W. W. Mein home at Tahoe Park. Mrs. Walter Gabriel is opening her house on the Truckee River, and will place it on the market for sale. Mrs. Henry Poett Sr. of the peninsula, returned to her bay area home on Saturday after having enjoyed a stay at the family summer home in the Sunnyside district. She had as her guests her sister, Mrs. Timlow and daughter of Woodside. Now vacationing at the family place are the Henry Poetts Jr. Back from their honeymoon are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carnell, recently married in Reno. They are occupying an apartment in the Kilner building in town. Mr. and Mrs. Will Grant of San Rafael have opened Agea, summer home just north of town which will be occupied this year by Miss Alice Griffith, who accompanied them here from San Francisco. Here for the summer are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Selby of the bay area, who will occupy a house near Tahoe Tavern. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peer, Hollywood, who purchased the M. L. Brenner home at Tahoma, are now in for the season. It is reported reliably that the James Stacks (she was the former Wanda Hendrix), are honeymooning at the home of his brother, Robert Stack, at Crystal Bay, Nev. Mrs. Richard Carrington of Los Angeles, wife of the manager of the Los Angeles Examiner, is occupying the family home, Koala, at the foot of Dollar Hill. She is entertaining relatives. He will join the family later in the summer. In at their Fabulous is the word for Joby Lewis gifts that are being given away every afternoon at Cal-Vada Lodge, all for free, too. Just take a ride up and see the crowds from noon til six. Was up there today and everyone and his uncle were there having heaps of fun.

Sure seems funny to pass by the Shell station in Kings Beach and not see Bob Arney around. Bob sold to a couple of nice guys. The sign reads under new management, Ray & Mikes, and by the way today ,Thursday, is Bob's birthday, and there's lots of celebrationg goin' on up at their house tonight. Finnie says he didn't get to know a thing about a big surprise party that had been planned in his honor. Happy birthday, Bob.

Last week I reported Dr. Wyatt was to open up at the Ta-Neva-Ho. Well, he has opened up already, and by all accounts is in full swing. The offices look swell, pretty as a picture. It looks as though Doc will be really community minded, quite interested in the gun shoots, in fact every kind of sport.

Mrs. Ella Blake of Richmond has returned to her home in Kings Beach and Lloyd, her son, is also here. Mrs. Blake is just getting around without a cane. About a month ago she had the misfortune to break her ankle, but it healed a whole lot faster than she expected, so as she says she missed a month of this beautiful place.

The vacationists are sure coming in thick and fast now, what with schools being out, and the extremely hot weather in the valley towns, we are hoping it will continue, and we believe it will, too. Jack Braden reports a full house at his Edgelake Beach resort, as do Golds at Goldcrest, Streepers of Woodvista Lodge, Ludlows of Ludlows Lodge, Gerry Potts of Burrough Resort. As Gerry says the "Potts are all full," in fact all resorts, too numerous to mention are doing a real good business. Tom James has his resort in excellent shape now with new apartments and bungalows. The Sun and Sands have a wonderful new addition, as does the Falcon Lodge. The Wing Chalet is all new. All the way along the highway and back off the highway places are springing up from the Brockway Hill to the bottom of Dollar Hill. It's really remarkable.

The Community Hall at Tahoe City has been freshly painted and it sure looks good. This is where the Judicial Court is held—won't you visit me? Open for business every day.

Harry Stubley, our real estate dealer of Kings Beach, has been appointed by the county supervisors to serve another four-year term on the Placer County Planning Commission. Harry has been serving as secretary, and has been doing an excellent job, and we can look for more important decision from the commission. This office takes an enormous amount of time and efforts and we thank each one for their splendid efforts.

Had a very nice visit from Charles H. and Mrs. Collect of Burbank. They are looking around this area with the idea of purchasing some property that they might make a home at least for the summer months, and maybe winter too, we hope.

The cutest little guy I ever saw is Randy Williams. He stopped to see us the other day, and still persists in being given a ride to our house. He justs sits and laughs, but doesn't say a word, but just wait he'll be a real lady's man before long, give him a chance, huh, he's only 11 months old.

Meredith Siple is sure enjoying his boathouse these days. It is really a honey and skims through the water like a fish—a flying fish that is.

The California Highway Patrol formed a road block at Brockway Saturday. One beautiful young girl came to the house with a ticket for having an expired driver's license. "Do you know, Judge, I was always afraid of getting a ticket, but it was such fun, the officer that gave me the ticket was so handsome." That should get those guys guessing, huh?

What a weekend it was, Friday, Saturday and Sunday the Cal-Neva Golf Tournament at both Tahoe City and Brockway course were really loaded with people, both players and sightseers, and then the North Tahoe Gun Club put on a wonderful shoot, bringing in experts from all over the state. Nevada was well represented. The weather was perfect.

Saw Loma Sorensen. She has returned from a trip to Canada which she took with Miss Finger and Eddie Meiss. Loma tells me they had a very delightful vacation, went away up to Edmonton, Alberta, visiting many of those western Canada towns, and coming back by way of Portland, Ore., and now she is to be seen as busy as a bee in Loynd s Drug Store in Kings Beach.

Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Covher have returned from a trip to Stockton, wher the Methodist convention was held. They sure had a hot time in the 'ole town. Around 100 degrees all the time. How beautiful to get back to the lake and some nice fresh air. Shame on me—I didn't get to church last Sunday, but I am told there was an excellent congregation, lots of new faces. Next Sunday we hope to have the open air chapel in operation and it is going to be wonderful to sit under the pines and enjoy the service and celebrate the Fourth of July in the bargain. Come.

This area has so much to brag about, so let's add a little more, let's show how patriotic we are and just what we think of our country and our Flag, by raising Old Glory on our homes or stores on Sunday and Monday. Let's all do it, shall we? Let's and then each day sing "God Bless America!"

Mrs. Christiansen of Christiansen's Beach Cottages, just told me that Chris made an express trip to Portersville to see his son Kenneth graduate. It was hoped Kenny would be up to assist his did this year, but he got himself a nice little job down there. Also they are looking forward to having a friend of ours, Dan Strebel and family, stop on their way back from Kansas where they have been visiting Mrs. Strebel's folks.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. A. C. Abbott of Kings Beach has been quite sick in the Tahoe Forest Hospital in Truckee, but the latest report is that she is improving, and should be home by now, Tuesday. Keep up the good work, Mary.

Rubicon Beach estates for a vacation are the William Gearys and the R. F. Hotles of Piedmont. Also in for a stay are the N. R. Nolls at Carnelian Bay and Mrs. Ed Wallis of Piedmont and children at Sunnyside.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Gehlert and daughter Julie of Reno, visited friends at Tahoe City on Sunday. They are former residents of Tahoe City.

Widely planted in the United States, the horse chestnut tree is a native of the Balan Peninsula.

We wrote you sometime ago about a booklet being issued by the State Chamber of Commerce to be sent outside of the state to potential vacationers in the form of a travel guide. We now have beside us an issue of that booklet entitled "The Sacramento Region—California—A Travel Guide." The contents in its 30 pages cover the various and.. sundry recreational areas of Northern California—that portion wherein we live being covered by headings "The Pioneer Trails to Lake Tahoe—U.S. 40—The Victory Highway" and "The Yuba River Region." Under "Things You Should Know" are listed hunting and fishing, transportation, auto driving tips and travel information. This booklet in its original output is entirely financed by the state chamber and while it is still "set up" on the press there is an opportunity for various areas to buy copies at a nominal sum—for, as stated, the booklet is primarily printed for out of state people. Seems to me that the second largest gateway of entry into California could put to good use these booklets.

And whilst we talk about "Signs of the Times" we bring to mind a suggestion made by Pat Woodard of the Donner Ski Ranch which has to do with signs—or namely, A Sign! We who live on top of a mountain and know the winding trail down its side which leads to Truckee—are perfectly cognizant of certain double lines which fence us in a single lane. On our return trips from eastward, however, when double lines are indicated—we fear to use the extra lane provided for passing because we do not know what is around the bend, and coming our way. Impatient westbound travelers—riding the bumper of a slow moving truck glance right and left for a "whiteside" and then giving themselves the "all clear" cross the double line to pass their obstacle. Such a sign at the Summit reading "Passing Over Double Lines on Downhill Grade Prohibited"—or "Double Lines Ahead on Dangerous Grade—Do Not Pass" or something stronger—at least warns the westbounder that he might meet up with a westbounder on a dangerous curve, using the passing lane provided for his passing.

After a cold half of the month of June—with wind, cloud and threatening predominating, the sun decided to favor us with its favored warmth. Streams are now dotted with fishermen, and travel picks up with rapidity. An indication of this can be found on hotel registers and can be seen by the number of cars parked in front of our various resorts. Donner Summit Lodge puts on its annual weekend specials for service clubs, Elmo Moriano of Beacon Hill—imports John Lucas, well known hotel chef to open his dining room to the public for the summer, and Rainbow Tavern reports an increase in dining room and room trade. Eleanor and John Johansen take over the running of Ice Lakes—that off the road Paradise—and report reservations coming in. Vi and Jim Marrott work long hours at the Soda Springs Coffee Shop and report a decided increase in business since the weather's turning.

Loaded trailers and packed cars announce that summer has arrived as cabins open for the remaining warm months. Kingvale Park and the Cedars awake from their winter month's blackout and become bustling communities and barbeques and summer parties already on schedule. The Soda Springs subdivision's forerunner, as usual, is the Dr. Ralph Reynolds family—and speaking of these lovers of their Soda Springs mountain home, Helen and "Grandma Reynolds' arrived after an Eastern trip whose object was to pick up a new car.

The "Kingvale Belles"Frances Johnson, Lucille Murphy, Grace Condon and the gang make the Kingvale area a lively spot as they clean up their "flood building" (name derived from a Yuba overflowing which ran through their basement on "high" gear and necessitated them packing up their house). The Duncan Gillies shout "hooray" as they move in with son Bob and plan on spending their first full summer at their charming home on the Yuba. Al and Irma Ledgerwood of Richmond come up to inspect their little "crackerbox" as they call it—and then leave for an Alaskan summer.

Some of our mountain folk have already returned from their vacation whilst others plans on future vacations. In the "return" bracket are Jack and Pat Woodard of the Ski Ranch. A month's vacation on the East Coast with three small sons in tow took them to the Statue of Liberty, Radio City, Central Park, the Bronx Zoo—and all of the places that little folk enjoy themselves. Pat and Jack found time, after their daily children's expeditions—to take in several good shows on Broadway. Jean and Elmo Moriano of Beacon Hill made a three week circuit of the places they wanted to see which included several of the Southern states and Jean s home state of Texas. More time was spent visiting the Bill Parrott family in Houghton, Mich.—than any other visitation, however. They report Bill, Gloria, Pam, Patty and new addition "Butch" in fine fettle, and wish to convey the Parrott's homesick "hello" to all of their mountain friends.

Milton and Helen Hogle came back from a western states tour looking refreshed—after a hard winter's work on the Soda Springs ski hill. With them now, at their Rainbow cottage, is Jane Vincent of Sacramento who will summer with her folks, as she rests from her school teaching.

from her Soda Springs Service Station to take her first look at grandchild number six in Oakland. Larry and Marge Rowton name their second creation "Carla" and are happy to have a little sister for number one "Susan."

Our local fishermen who know the treasured hidden spots, can be seen at sunrise. Included in this avid group are Bob Bouvier of the Soda Springs Hotel, Bob Allen (who vacations here for a few weeks), Jim Sherritt and Bud Zorich (both of the latter on a pack trip somewhere or another at the present time), Advi Aro, Jack Woodard. Mary Eberheart and small son Al of Loomis, park their trailer in "their spot' on Lake Van Norden and whip the streams each day.

Jane Vinson and Milton Hogle fish the easy way, as they recline on their porch and dangle lines in the river. Maggie Avila of Big Bend—tries her luck for the first time and wonders if she is a fisherman—or if she is being "kidded" about fish actually being catchable in the Yuba.

On our sick list we place Peg Travis—who isn't actually ill—but quite uncomfortable in a plaster "walking" cast to support a broken ankle. Mrs. Grant Chaplin (Doris) is in St. Mary's Hospital in Reno after two severe operations. Jean Moriano recuperates at the Washoe Hospital after surgery.

The road to Sugar Bowl, which we can view from our window, is dusty these days with cars heading for the annual Audubon Camp therein—and we hear rumors of a big "Retreiving Dog" meet to be held on the shores of Lake Van Norden on the weekend of July 9. Don't know whether this is a national meet or not—but big preparation are under way which we'll tell you more about later.

We met many, many old friends at the wedding of Shirley Flagg on June 20 which, we say without reservation, was the most perfect wedding we have ever attended. Even the sun cooperated in this pretty 2 p.m. affair at the Outdoor Chapel in Tahoe City, for Shirley's attendants—radiant in yellow, reflected it's rays as they led the beautiful bride on her father's arm—down the white carpet toward the altar. The usual tear seen at weddings was not witnessed for a bride as happy as Shirley precluded any tear shedding that might have been thought of.

Which reminds us that Eleanor Johansen traveled to San Francisco for the wedding of Leslie Clark—her goddaughter and reported that "her ' wedding was the season's best.

STARS APPEAR IN FAMOUS SWING WALTZ

Just like in the early days of Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies, the stars of the huge show take over the ice in the famous Swing Waltz in the new 18th edition. Betty Schalow, Richard Dwyer, Florence Rae, Dick Norris, Marie Crimmins, Pat Shanahan and others will take over the "swing" in the new enlarged 1954 Ice Follies. This promises to really be an outstanding "hit."

Ill On Vacation—

Evelyn Clester of Westwood had an interruption in her vacation with her aunt, Mrs. R. Clester of Tahoe City when she was rushed to Tahoe Forest Hospital on June 22 where an appendectomy was performed.

From South—

The George Lewis family is at their Tahoe Pines place, coming from Beverley Hills.

Vacationists are joining the clean roadside club—it's the easiest thing to do. Carry paper bags in your car for cigarette and gum wrappers, bottles and cans, tissues and other waste. Then dispose of the bags in convenient roadside receptacles.

GUTH DETHRONED AT ROTARY SESSION

TAHOE CITY—Tahoe City Rotary Club met at Tahoe Inn on Tuesday and was attended by 12 visiting Rotarians. It was slightly embarassing for outgoing President Howard Guth who was strapped to the elevated president chair by Harry Johanson and he was heavily fined for advertising after Charlotte Foley confronted him, carrying placards, advertising his resort.

Dennis Sach, program chairman, later complimented Guth for his work in the club during the past year and presented him with a past president's pin.

Fred Frazier of Live Oak, a former actor and comedian supplied the balance of the program.

Bill Connors will take the chair as president at next Tuesday s meeting.

TAHOE CITY—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Farr of Oakland, have purchased the Thomas home on Grove street near the school. Mrs. Farr, the former Lillian Vernon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Vernon of Tahoe City, will teach this summer in the Tahoe Lake Elementary School.

TWO RURAL DEATHS REPORTED BY CARS IN THIS DISTRICT

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The California Highway Patrol today reported there were two rural traffic deaths in the Truckee-Roseville patrol area during May. Last year there were no deaths for the same period.

The patrol listed 29 motorist injuries and 20 reportable accidents for the area during the month. This compared with 79 injuries and 36 accidents for May, 1953.

Statewide, the death toll hit 167, compared with 187 for the same month last year. Injuries totaled 3971, compared with 3945 a year ago. The number of reportable accidents increased slightly, from 2479 a year ago to 2498.

EVERY AVAILABLE OFFICER ON DUTY FOR 4TH FESTIVAL

SACRAMENTO — Preparing for the year's heaviest traffic, the California Highway Patrol plans to have every available officer and every available piece of equipment on duty over the Fourth of July weekend.

The patrol expects three of every four automobiles in the state to take to the road, and sounds the ominous warning that past performances and present trends indicate death for as many as 30 persons in unincorporated areas of the state. An additional 20 people may die in the cities between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight, Monday.

"We have advised, encouraged and suggested that motorists use common sense during their holiday outings," observed Commissioner B. R. Caldwell, head of the highway patrol.

"It is sheer madness for motorists to place their lives at the mercy of total strangers, some of whom may be inattentive, intoxicated or completely reckless. To be safe, motorists must assume the other driver is a poor driver and make adequate allowance for his expected errors," Caldwell said.

"Of course, for those who refuse to exercise judgment, the highway patrol will be working at top strength, citing every motorist who is seen committing a moving violation,' he warned pointedly.

FISH, GAME SEEKS HUGE SUM FROM TIDELAND OIL FUND

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Seth Gordon, state director of fish and game, proposed before an assembly subcommittee that his department spend more than $136 million during the next 10 years to make sure everyone in California has a chance to fish and hunt.

Gordon asked the subcommittee to recommend to the legisalture that $42,565,000 be allocated from California's tideland oil royalties to finance wildlife capital outlay over the 10-year period. This would be over and above the estimated $93,500,000 in hunting and fishing revenues which the department will spend for operations during that time.

The fish and game director proposed to use the requested appropriation as capital outlay for marine fisheries, inland fisheries, a salmon and steelhead program, "hunting opportunities,' and an economic survey.

He said the department would use $7,100,000 of the 10-year grant or the marine fisheries, $11,500,000 for inland fisheries, $3,950,000 for salmon and steelhead, $20,000,000 for "hunting opportunities," and $15,000 for the economic survey.

The annual capital outlay for the program would be $4,256,50, Gordon said.

"We are making no recommendation concerning the source of funds to undertake any or all of these projects," Gordon told the subcommittee.

"But," he added, "we share with nany others the belief that the tidelands funds, coming from one of the state's important natural resources, should finance renewable natural resources and recreation."

The director estimated there will be over three million sportsmen to supply in California by 1956. "Looking a little deeper into the crystal ball," he added, there will be 4,286,000 California sportsmen by 1975.

On Measurement Is Founded The Whole Progress Of Man

A meteorologist in Uncle Sam's Armed Forces might well pause when he ponders the comparison between his modern scientific instruments and the original Galileo thermometer. The Galileo air-thermoscope consisted of a glass bulb containing air, connected to a glass tube of small bore dipping into a colored liquid. This contraption was affected by variations in atmospheric pressure as well as temperature changes,, so our sixteenth century forefathers were never sure of the true temperature. Yet, this was the conception of accurate measurement.

SWANEE'S Lake Tahoe Letter

Tahoe City, June 27

Dear Tahoeites:

Have you contributed yet to the fund being raised for the purchase of fireworks for the Fourth of July display in front of Tahoe Inn at 8:30 p.m. in the evening? The boys of the Tahoe City Volunteer Fire Department are working like beavers to collect a tidy sum with which to entertain the huge throngs which are expected. Last year s crowd was spectacular, and this year's it is anticipated, will be even larger. Large firecracker containers will be placed in the local stores and your contribution is respectfully requested. Members of the Women's Club of Tahoe will pass around the containers later to swell the fund. Come and bring your friends, as it is reported this will be the only display on this end of the lake. Everyone is welcome!

Was extremely saddened today to learn of the critical illness of my old friend, Mrs. Ernest Hoerdler, who probably won't be able to enjoy a vacation at the family home in Tahoe City this summer. She underwent a severe operation a few weeks ago and remains in serious condition at their home in Covina. All her many friends and neighbors in this area wish her the best of good luck, and complete and speedy recovery. Ernie is barber at Tahoe Inn.

It was reported that 37 were at church and Sunday school today at Tahoe Community Center Hall where American Sunday School Union services are held each Sunday under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Waters of Deer Park Lodge. All are welcome.

Latest word from Kathleen Starratt, is that her Elbo Ranch is now open for summer season. It is located seven miles out of Jackson Hole, Wyo., on the elbow of a branch of the Snake River, from whence it derives its name. Kathleen writes that June Haver and Fred McMurray have taken reservations at her abode for a month or more while making a new movie for Paramount based on the Lewis and Clark expedition story with the Grand Teton mountains in the background. The picture "Shane' was filmed at Katie's backyard, and beautiful and different it was too. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Butterfield, local teachers, who left several weeks ago on a motor vacation visited Kay at her Elbo ranch for several days before taking off for Washington state, where Mr. B may attend summer school. And speaking of Kay, reminds me, Tahoe City's Village Store turned 10 years of age on June 17. Congratulations one and all!

Little Billie Brehler, son of the James Brehlers, who are now renting the Ida Pomin cottage in town, turned one on June 20, and cut a nice birthday cake at his dinner party and welcomed visits from many of his little neighbor playmates.

Herb Dana of Tahoma on June 12 displayed three nice big trout he caught from the end of his pier. Norman Dewhurst on June 14 started summer school classes at University of Nevada. He comes home on weekends.

Bishop Noel Porter reports approximately 175 persons attended first services held at the Outdoor Chapel on Sunday, June 27 at 11 a.m. The good bishop has been returning to Sacramento where Mrs. Porter is ill. She must rest at present but may be able to come to the lake in August. Her many good friends here are wishing her speedy recovery, and good luck! Postmaster Oliver Corona this week announces for the benefit of stamp collectors that he now has on sale at the local postoffice the Nebraska Territorial, Kansas Territorial, and eight and three cent Liberty stamps the latter just out. Mrs. Grace Williams of Lake Forest is operating the Beardsley Alibi Lake at the Tahoe wye concrete bridge. Some 400 pounds of rainbow trout were planted yesterday, Saturday, ranging from six to twelve inches, and larger.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Scott are now in at their summer home on the lakeshore in Miramar Heights. Guests now being entertained include their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. James Eschhen, all of Piedmont, and Mrs. George Lunn of La Jolla.

Will ring off for the week with an invite to one and all to come to Tahoe City for the fireworks display. It will be well worthwhile. And over the holiday weekend drive sanely and carefully, and give a little prayer of gratitude for the independence we enjoy still in America. Happy holidays and adios, as ever, SWANEE

Mrs. Marvin Hostess At Party Honoring Mrs. William Connors

TAHOE CITY—Mrs. Neal Marvin of Tahoe Park on Tuesday last hosted a novel pink and blue shower, and dinner party, for Mrs. William Connors of Tahoe Pines.

The assembled guests enjoyed three games before the honoree opened the many dainty gifts, with prize winners including Mrs. Violet Pomin, Mrs. Beccy Shontz and Mrs. Pat Cross. Then followed a delicious garden dinner.

Guests who enjoyed the pleasant affair were Mesdames Connors, Pomin, Shontz, Cross and Dorothy Bury, June Grinstead, Marge Broyles, William Korich, Louise Geier, Izola Porter, Elsie Bechdolt, Grace Williams, Diane Briner, Martha Snyder, Jean Henry and Mrs. Billie Hamilton.

VETERAN, YOUNGSTER WIN SQUAW VALLEY NET TITLE

SQUAW VALLEY—Dr. Ralph Reynolds of San Francisco, veteran of 20 years of tennis, and 19 year old Emory (Buzz) Summers of Ceres, captured the Second Annual Squaw Valley Invitational Doubles tennis title yesterday by defeating Chris Blanchard, San Francisco, and Don Hamilton of Sacramento 4-6, 8-6, 6-2.

Reynolds and Summers defeated Alex Cushing of Squaw Valley and Howard Morehouse of Mill Valley, Calif., 6-1, 6-3.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — In another opinion resulting from the Weinberger investigation into liquor administration in California, Attorney General Edmund G. Brown has ruled that the State Board of Equalization, in issuing liquor licenses for "record purposes only" is performing an unlawful act.

It is unlawful, the opinion held, except where the board has approved plans for adequate legal premises. And even when plans are approved on specified locations, if the premises are uncompleted, the licenses cannot be delivered until they are completed and approved.

One of the inadequacies of State Board of Equalization administration of liquor in California, which was turned up by the legisalive Weinberger committee, was the issuance of liquor licenses to vacant lots, and premises where nobody ever intended to retail liquor either by the bottle or the drink. These licenses were held, and later resold, the committee testimony indicated, for exorbitant prices.

Stress is placed in the Brown opinion, which was issued at the request of Assemblyman Caspar Weinberger, who headed the investigating committee, on the law's requirement for on-sale licenses to be issued only to "eating places" equipped and maintained in good faith for sales to and consumption by the public of meals upon the premises.

"This means," the opinion said, "an applicant must control a specific location with adequate premises thereon for the serving of food and means, or at least the construction of such premises on the specific location must be in immediate contemplation, and evidenced by plans and specifications for which the adequacy of the premises may be ascertained."

The opinion declares that obviously, a license issued to a person not possessing or contemplating the immediate construction of premises, is issued in violation of the statue since it is not possible to determine whether premises not in existence or evidenced by plans and specifications qualify as a public eating place.

"A license which is issued to an applicant without the mandatory investigation of his premises having been made, is issued contrary to law," the Brown opinion said.

Further, the Board of Equalization is required to deny a license if "the premises for which the license is applied do not qualify for a license under this division.

"Again, it is difficult to conceive of an investigation, pursuant to this section, not yet in the blue print stage. The law imposes upon the state liquor administrator the duty to cause a complete investigation of the applicant and the premises to determine whether they qualify under the law. Again, this is an impossibility with reference to premises not in existence or in immediate contemplation as evidenced by plans and specifications."

Brown said that "no feat of ledgerdemain can permit the issuance of a license "for record only" in the face of the clear and unequivocal language of the statute to issue a license "for a specific location," the principal address of which shall be indicated on the license.

"The statute requiring the posting of licenses, if done upon nonexistent premises, would be a physical impossibility," the opinion says.

Thus, with this and other opinions rendered by the attorney general which have cleared up some of the questions raised by the Weinberger committee, the board should be able to follow the law conclusively.

Taxpayers Group Hits At Lack of Bids For Crushed Rock Contract

A 10,000 yard contract for crushed rock at $1.005 per yard was negotiated by the Placer County Road Department without competitive bids, Tax Facts for Taxpayers, monthly newsletter of the Placer County Taxpayers Association points out in its June 15th issue.

"The project called for crushing 10,000 yards of rock at $1.005 per yard, which was let out on contract to a Sacramento firm," Tax Facts states. "This price does not include a royalty of 15c per yard paid to the owners of the rock, making the total price $1.155 per yard, plus truck hire, which will bring the cost of gravel laid down to around $2.50 per yard, according to the county road commissioner's own estimate. Local contractors were first given a chance to bid on setting up a portable rock-crushing plant at Todds Valley, which none of them bid on. The contract was then let out by the road commissioner without bids, with the consent of the supervisors.

"One local contractor informed us he could have supplied 10,000 yards of the same kind of rock at 75c per yard loaded, including royalty, but he had no chance to bid on this contract. This represents a difference of $0.405 per yard or $4050 of the taxpayers' money," Tax Facts points out.

"The county, the road department and the schools are all big buyers of material and equipment," Tax Facts goes on. "Competitive bids are one way to insure economical buying and it gives local firms a chance to get county and school business on an open, competitive market. With the county, it is difficult to find out just where the line is drawn between negotiated contracts and competitive bids. The road department has spent to date on capital outlay for equipment $172,100, according to figures obtained from the county road commissioner. Just how much of these purchases were obtained by bids or negotiated contract is difficult to ascertain," Tax Facts declares.

New Minister Will Be In Pulpit Sunday As Reception Held Here

Rev. and Mrs. Wesley Osman and small daughter, Julia Ann were honored at a reception on Sunday, June 27, held in the Methodist Community Church.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Osman are graduates of the College of Pacific at Stockton. Mrs. Osman is a native of Placerville. Rev. Osman occupied the pulpit in a Lynn, Mass., church following the completion of his studies at Boston.

Rev. Osman will preach a Fourth of July sermon called "The Freedom of Self-disciplined Life."

Wednesday Dr. Dillon Throckmorton made a visit to Truckee to see how things are progressing. The Rev. Osman made a trip to Sacramento Tuesday to meet with all the ministers in Dr. Throckmorton's district.

The church is just near the close of a long struggle to prepare the parsonage for the Osmans. The kitchen-dining room has been completely re-done.

There is to be a meeting of all those who are interested in reorganizing the MYF at 6:30 Sunday night in the church. All those from 13 up through high school are invited to come. This is not a regular meeting but just an organizing meeting that may last only a half an hour.

INDIANS ONCE WERE SUMMER VISITORS AT LAKE TAHOE

Lake Tahoe and the High Sierra were popular summer vacation sports—for California Indians—long before the coming of Columbus, a University of California anthropologist reported yesterday.

Authority for the holiday habits of Indians was Dr. Robert F. Heizer, the day's chief witness before an Indians' Claim Commission hearing in Berkeley.

Being heard by the commission are claims against the federal government totaling $93,750,000 covering some 75,000,000 acres of land allegedly taken from the state's aborigines in the course of early unratified treaties.

In an attempt to show that the Indians made real use of their land, Doctor Heizer told how they migrated in great number from their valley villages to the Sierra in the summer in search of game and other food.

He described these visits—particularly to the area around Tahoe—as "vacation visits."

Doctor Heizer backed up his statement with a report on studies which he said had found few remains of Indian villages in the area between the foothills and the 5000 foot level—but many both above and below those levels.

He added that this was a real indication of seasonal migration.

Electric Energy Cost May Affect Truckee, As Boost Is Approved

C. Edmunds, manager of the Truckee Public Utility District today said he had not been advised whether or not the Federal Power Commission's approval of an increase in electric power rates by the Pacific Gas & Electric Company to the Sierra Pacific Power Company would affect the local rates.

The utility district here purchases electric energy from the Sierra Pacific which in turn buys it from the P.G.&E.

A new dispatch from Washington says:

The Federal Power Commission announced approval today of an increase of about $419,400 or 28.4 per cent, annually in electric rates by Pacific Gas & Electric Co., San Francisco, for sales to Sierra Pacific Power Co. in Reno.

The FPC said the increase "is not unlawful.'

P.G.&E. asked for the increase early in 1953. It has been collecting the increased rates since last September, subject to refund if it had been disapproved.

P.G.&E. supplies energy to Sierra under a contract negotiated in 1948. The new rate schedule does not affect any part of the 1948 contract other than rates. Sierra contended that to change the rate in the 1948 agreement without altering other provisions "would be grossly unfair."

The commission said Sierra had not suggested any alterations which should be made in other terms if the rates were changed as proposed.

The commission declared that "it has long been well established that a public utility can not by contract place its rates beyond the reach of regulation by public authority."

ASA ABBOTT SEATED AS PRESIDENT OF BROCKWAY ROTARY

KINGS BEACH — The Rotary Club of Brockway ladies night, held at Cal-Vada Lodge, Monday night will remain for a long time as a highlight in the history of the club. The outstanding feature of the evening was a talk by Maj. John H. Oliphint, deputy director of intelligence, Stead Air Force Base, Reno. Major Oliphint's subject was "Power of Peace."

He told of his belief in the present day capabiilty of our air force to maintain a free United States for our future generations; his belief in our country and what it staands for. He also told of Russia s miiltary preparedness and of the devastating effect which our A and H bombs could produce; all of which was food for serious thought on the part of everyone present.

The delicious steak dinner and the privilege of seeing and hearing the floor show added to the pleasure of the evening. Our thanks go to Joby Lewis for his hospitality and solicitousness of the club which was extended over a period of years.

During the meeting the following officers for the year 1954-55 were installed by President Holmes: Asa E. Abbott, president; E. J. Stokes, secretary; Everett E. Campbell, treasurer; Hillard Holmes and Tom Sutton, directors. W. D. Randall, vice-president and Paul Mullis a director, being absent will be installed at a later date.
